Discipline.

/ˈdɪs.ə.plɪn/ noun

1. the quiet practice of choosing what you want most over what you want now.
2. a form of self-respect.

see also: tomorrow.